Coal Tie-Up Only Settled When Water Front Work-

are Ordered to Quit.

mittee of the Transport Workers met to consider the advisability of ordering a general strike.

The men demand the standardisation of wages, increases in several instances, shorter hours and larger crews for the general work. The strike at first was directed only against shipping in this port, but has spread. It will call out upward of 190,000 men and absolutely tie up all commerce. suffering.

At 7 o'clock this afternoon it was estimated that 40,000 dock workers had struck under the orders of the local-unions in advance of the general strike. There has been no rioting.

Harry Gosling, the men's leader, addressing the dock workers after the decision of the Transport Workers' Federation, told them they were in for a big fight which would not be meast

The difficulty of obtaining meat, supplies from the docks has sent the price up two conts a pound already and the millers are apprehensive of the situation, as the prevances. Its own grievances.
